Celebrating Long Island's Coastal Culture

Long Island Traditions, the Cinema Arts Centre in Huntington, and the Plaza Cinema and Media Arts Center in Patchogue are pleased to partner on a two-month-long film festival that celebrates Long Island's rich coastal culture through the power of cinema.

Including the premiere of
"A World Within a World: Long Island Bay Houses" by Barbara Weber and Greg Blank.
The movie examines the lives, history, and experiences of bay house owners in the Town of Hempstead from both a historical and contemporary perspective.

Five films will be shown over the course of two months beginning on March 15
